Did you know library cards are FREE??

Did you know the reading habit can be cyclical?

Some days you are just so distracted by work, family, life; that to think of settling quietly into a good book seems impossible. Easier to just slump in front of the computer or streaming device and vegetate.

But once you find that great mystery, romance, thriller or biography that hooks you, you can't believe how much you missed the pleasure of reading.

Books happen at your own pace and you can pick up easily where you left off. Do you remember the feeling when you finished a good book? So happy to have found out the ending and somewhere, deep down, a little sad that you didn't have that book to read anymore! Right now I have been inspired by my binge watching of Shetland to seek out the books that inspired that series.

Ann Cleeves wrote a series of murder mysteries set in the beautiful northern landscape of the Shetland Islands. Her books are page turners. I love the characters; I love the culture and I love trying to figure out "whodunit"!

Think of your favourite author and come in and find their books. If it's not at the Levack Onaping Branch we can bring it in from other branches or through the Inter-Library Loan system, we can access books from branches across the country! You can also find books that are "like" your favourite author. We are here to help you with that!

The library is here to help you get "back into books"!

Come see me at the Levack Onaping Library.

We are open Mon. 9 – 2 Tues 2 – 7 Wed 10- 2 Thurs 2 -7 and Sat 10 -2

MARTIAL ARTS SCHOOL

Master Yvon Carriere hosted a Grand Opening Ceremony for his new martial arts school in Dowling. Master Yvon has been teaching Martial Arts for over 2 decades in our region at the St. Etienne School offering classes to students of all ages. It has been his dream to build a private school to be able to offer more classes during the week and offer a more personalized experience to his students. Dowling KMAC is a proud member of the United Korean Martial Arts Alliance, an organization that has been established in Northern Ontario for over 50 years.

Chief Master Gerry Fortin was the guest of honour. He offered his congratulations to Yvon. It was a special moment to him, considering Master Gerry opened up his first school in Dowling in the late 70's. The event coincided with a Black Belt testing ceremony for candidates from the Sudbury region and a catered lunch to all Master Yvon guests.

NEW BOOK JUST RELEASED - BY LOCAL AUTHOR

"WHO'S YER FADDER?"

"Rootin" Round the Family Tree"

by Andrew Tulloch

"WHO'S YER FADDER?" is the culmination of an in-depth study of the ancestral lineage of the author. Presented in an entertaining combination of well documented historical, geographical, and social factors, Tulloch leads us through the lives and times of four principal families. These were immigrants to Canada during the 19th century, hailing from various British locales, destined for the ALGOMA DISTRICT of Northern Ontario. Enlivened with humor and heartbreak, "WHO'S YER FADDER?" is a delightful, informative read.

This book is a glimpse into the lives they left behind and their quest for a more promising future. It is the transition from homes of hardship and little hope to a new land rife with it's own brand of hardships but abounding with hope. It reflects the human spirit – lives awash with adversity yet prevailing with strength of body, mind, soul and spirit over calamity and circumstance, in quest of a common dream.

OBSERVATION DECK

JANUARY 2022
WITH ELLARD

Deepest sympathies for those who have lost loved ones!

The RED TEAM was definitely on a roll this season!!
Oldtimers Hockey at the Levack Arena

Well folks! Here we go again!
Just when we see a little sunshine the rain pours down on us.
Those few weeks we had were certainly appreciated.
To be able to visit, enjoy shopping, church and dining out! I got more exercise returning to the car to get my mask !

So what do we do now??

I believe the majority of people in our communities are adhering to the guidelines. No one is perfect but we do respect others by wearing a mask.

All I can say to the Naysayers
please respect our decision to help get back to normal living.
Politicians are not the enemy now,
the Pandemic is the enemy.
Only by joining forces will we get back to normal living.

Happy New Year
from my home
to yours!
