OBSERVATION DECK

NOVEMBER 2022

WITH ELLARD

Condolences to the family and friends of Berky Brekljacich, Barbara Kauhanen, Nellie Langdon, Vera Terry and Ambrose Desbarbieus.

A bunch of us old Cronies were sitting chatting the other day throwing old names around and realizing that alot of these families were still going strong in our communities. I thought it would be fun to mention a few and a good place to start would be from the Town of Levack. Let's recognize some of the pioneers whose family roots were planted there and the 'offspring' that still remain and prosper from that town. Levack has been recognized for some professional athletes but there are quite a few families who are considered 'infamous' and they are family names that we hear everyday. There is so much history and stories surrounding these families. Some notable names are :
Andrews, Armstrong, Besserer, Brosseau, Brown, Charlebois, Demers, Lachance, Moore, Morley, Nerpin, O'Byrne, O'Connor, Picard, Winn, Romain, Lappan, Sarazin and more.
I could go on and on...
It's funny . When I am listing names that most were Legionnaires who quite often needed a ride home from the Legion for various reasons! LOL

What a PROUD town Levack was and is still today!
EGG ROLLS anyone??

Dates to recognize this month are
November 4th - Use Common Sense Day - Whatever!!
November 11th - Remembrance Day - Support Branch 503
November 14th is National Pickle day - Get Pickled!

The Levack Onaping Library is now open Saturdays from 10 -2. Drop in with your children and there will be a new easy DIY craft to put together each Saturday! So far we have made ghosts and decorated leaves! We can't wait for what November crafts will be!

Now that we are heading for "cozy inside weather" it's time to find that author that will keep you occupied. Come and browse our NEW BOOK section. Or maybe you need a few minutes to just get away from it all. The library has some nice seating areas where you can sit and read, knit, look at a local paper or magazine. Maybe try out an adult (or child's) colouring book. These can be very relaxing. Remember the library is YOUR library.

In library parlance there is something called the "Dead List". This is made up of older books that no one has taken out in sometime. These books are withdrawn from the system and are added to our ongoing BOOK SALE. We have a lot of new additions to our book sale right now! Any donation amount is acceptable to acquire these books! Paperbacks and hard cover in all kinds of genres are available. Don't miss out. Check out our book sale.

Don't forget Story Time happens every week on Wednesdays at 10:30 a.m. and I will repeat it Mondays at 10:30 for those who can't make Wednesday. There is always a little craft attached to our story time. Hope to see you there!

Our special event this month is a Spelling Bee! Are you able to spell "antidisestablishmentarianism"? Maybe you should sign up for our Spelling bee happening Saturday, November 26th. Prizes and LOTS of unfamiliar words! Come in and get the rules and regs to get started!

You can find Martha at the Levack Onaping Library in the Onaping Community Centre trying to finish the leftover Hallowe'en candy.

The Levack Onaping Library is open Mon 9-2 Tue 2-7 Wed 10-2 Thu 2-7 & *Sat 10-2

The Legislative Page Program is taking Applications

If you know students in Grade 7 or 8 that might be interested in applying for the Legislative Page Program, the recruitment period for the spring 2023 session is open until November 30, 2022.

This is an opportunity for students to learn about Ontario's parliamentary process, meet key figures and make lifelong friendships with like-minded peers. Each year approximately 150 students from across Ontario are selected to participate in the program. You can learn more, here:

ola.org/en/visit-learn/programs/about-page-program

You can reach the Page Program at 1-416-325-7457

To apply, essays may be submitted, here:
