VOLUME 12

SEPTEMBER 2018

SPLASH PAD GRAND OPENING SUCCESS!

The Splash Pad at the Onaping Community Centre had a fantastic Grand Opening Ceremony. Hosted by the Onaping Falls Recreation Committee on August 15th, 2018.

On hand to celebrate were our Mayor Brian Bigger, Nickel Belt M.P. Marc Serre and Ward 3 Councillor, Gerry Montpellier all pictured in the photograph, in the celebratory Ribbon Cutting ceremony, alongside the two ladies that spearheaded this project, Carrie Morin and Valerie Besserer. (Holding the ribbon were Raelle Morin and Gwen Besserer, with Gwens cousin Hannah McIntosh). Splash Pads are open in the city from June 1st to September 24th from 10am to 9pm daily. All Splash Pads are free for community use. The park at the community centre has benches, picnics tables and a play structure. During his opening speech Mayor Bigger made mention of the lack of shade! The Onaping Falls Recreation Committee is working on a fair sized pavilion project for the future with hopes the City of Greater Sudbury will be on board to fund! Thank you to the Community Action Network (CAN) for the free burgers and hotdogs, Meadowbrook Retirement Village for the Cold drinks, Amaze n Fun for the Bounce Castle and the Legion Branch 503 for the loan of the coolers and ice supply, Rogers Valumart for the $25 gift certificate and Levack Home Hardware for the Propane and our volunteers!

The weather was perfect and the attendance was outstanding!

On August 15th M.P. Marc Serre took the time out of his schedule to come out for the Grand Opening of the Splash Pad at the Onaping Community Centre.

He is pictured on the left with Carrie Morin and Valerie Besserer, the two ladies that followed through with this Splash Pad project from beginning to end. In the bottom left corner, Marc took to the podium and spoke about how the Splash Pad monies came about. It was the first time in Canada that FEDNOR sponsored such a project. Thank you FEDNOR , Marc Serre and the City of Greater Sudbury for your contribution to our facility.

Below, along with a few other grown ups Marc took his turn running through the 'tunnel' of water.

It was a fabulous day with over 100 people in attendance!

QUICK FALL BEAR HUNTING TIPS

By Sean 'Blue' Gray

After hunting black bears for many years, my experience has helped me land a few nice bears and not have to sit for the whole season in a tree stand to do so. The fall hunt is very similar to the spring hunt except the fact that the bears are getting ready for hibernation. Fall bears are usually looking for starchy foods: nuts, seeds, pasta, molasses covered corn mashed potatoes and popcorn are great baits! Any type of frozen meat or fish scraps also works well. I use frozen meats because it lasts longer and tends not to spoil.

If you want to shoot a bear quickly, be sure to bait at the same time everyday. Bears will get use to hearing the quad come in..... and then leave. They will quickly become conditioned to this routine and arrive shortly after you have baited. I like to bait around 4:00pm and bang the barrels, then leave on the quad and return on foot and get in my stand around an hour later. Be sure to walk in quietly and give the bait a good look for lurking bears. I have arrived to my stand many times and the bears were already in the barrel!

It is also a great idea to bait near natural food sources such as fields, oaks, blackberry patches, and pin/choke cherries. If you can find these feeding areas in saddles with a water source such as a stream or creek that is a bonus!! All in all bear hunting can be tough sometimes as bears have a keen sense of smell and hearing, however, persistence and good routines can go a long way.

On another note, October 1st is fast approaching and this is the bow opener for whitetails in many WMU's. So be sure to check your hunting regulations and begin scouting for a monster. If you are not a bow hunter and thinking about it, head on over to Ten Point Archery in Chelmsford and they can suit you up for a nice extended season of whitetail. The bow season in some areas closes on December 15th 😊

5 Practical Ideas for Back to School Goal Setting

Did you know that if people take the time to sit and write out their goals, they are 50% more likely to accomplish them? This is why goal setting is such an important soft skill to teach students. Teaching kids how to set, plan and achieve personal goals related to school, life and extracurricular activities is paramount – especially in September when everything is new and fresh.

Here are some of my favourite Back to School Goal Setting Activities that can be accomplished in the classroom or at home with a parent (goal setting is also a great family activity).

Vision Boards: Who doesn't love a good old collage? Essentially, that's what a vision board is. Ask students to create a physical (or virtual) collage of words, images, phrases that represent their personal goals, then have them display their work in the class or a visible place in the home.

Movie Trailer: imovie has a great feature where they have pre-set 'movie trailer' shells with music, font/colours etc. I have students create a 'movie trailer' that features what their upcoming school year will look like: what themes will be present, what tone will it have, who will they spend time with, what will they do, what challenges will they face, etc. Students can then share their movie trailers with the class, or via a private social media page with parent permission.

Bucket List Writing Assignment: After introducing students to the idea of the 'bucket list', I guide them through the writing process to create a 'bucket list' of personal goals for the school year. This activity can be adapted from a basic list for younger or weaker students to a complete personal essay for advanced students.

Inquiry Based Learning Research: Giving students free rein to learn about goal setting is another strategy I like to use. I usually start with asking students 2-3 'key' questions. For example: What is the practice of goal setting? Why is goal setting an important skill to apply to life and school? How do you go about setting and achieving goals? I then set them loose with the options to both discuss with peers and do some online research alone to answer the key questions.

Use an App!: This final activity is easy and tech focused. Students are taught about the premise of goal setting, then asked to find a suitable FREE app via the app store that they can download to their phone to guide their goal setting practice. There are a plethora of apps that fit this mould, and students are encouraged to enter at least 3 personal goals to track over a given period of time.

Enza MacEachern is the proud new Principal at Levack Public School. She has a strong background in Special Education, specifically in the areas of Autism and Alternative Education.

Enza began her career in education in 1986 in Guelph and since then has had the pleasure of working in London, Timmins, Winnipeg and South Africa as an educational consultant.

She previously held the position of Vice Principal at both Redwood Acres PS and Chelmsford PS and, most recently, Principal of Chelmsford PS.

For the past twelve years she has been of Chair of Operations and Registrations and Steering Committee for the Sudbury Regional Heritage Fair. Enza believes strongly in actively engaging staff, students, parents and community partners to ensure success for all. She is looking forward to getting to know all her students and their families.

Her door is always open! Go Leopards!

C.V.D.C.S. welcomes Danielle Williamson as Principal! "It is with great pleasure that I return to Chelmsford as the principal of C.V.D.C.S. !

6 years ago, for 3 years, I had the honour of being principal of Chelmsford Public School.

In many ways returning to Chelmsford is like returning home for me! I would like to thank the entire community for the warm welcome back.

I look forward to connecting with families of students from Onaping Falls who will be attending C.V.D.C.S. this Fall.

Our communities are vibrant and supportive and I'm thrilled to be a part of them once again."

A bench dedicated to a special lady

The TOT LOT on Larch Street in Levack got some new benches this past week. One of those benches was dedicated to a very special 63 year resident Mrs. May Gray. May had a few words to share .
 'Thank you to my family, children, grand children and great grand children for the wonderful bench at the playground. This gift was in honour of my 85th birthday. The benches will provide a seating area for visitors to the park and a stop over for walkers, like myself, for a nice little break . A most appreciated gift for everyone in the community to enjoy.'

Sudbury Integrated Nickel Operations (Sudbury INO), a Glencore company, is proposing to construct a 115 kilovolt (kV) substation (Hillcrest Substation) and an approximately 1.5-kilometre-long 115 kV transmission line (the Project), located in the City of Greater Sudbury, near the towns of Onaping and Levack.

The Sudbury INO electrical transmission infrastructure that is currently providing supply to Sudbury INO's mining operations in the Levack/Onaping area, is reaching its end of life. The proposed Project is required to replace the existing aging and unreliable electrical infrastructure and would ensure continued safe and reliable electrical supply to Sudbury INO's existing and future Craig Mine operations. The proposed Project would strengthen the electricity system that serves Sudbury INO's current Craig Mine operation and provide opportunity for continued deep mining operations in the area, and supply the needed (additional) power for a cooling system in order to provide improved conditions for the workforce in a deep mining environment.

The proposed Project includes:

- A new 115 kV substation that would be owned and operated by Sudbury INO and located beside Strathcona Mine Road, all within Sudbury INO property which has restricted access and 24/7 security personnel.
- An approximately 1.5-kilometre-long 115 kV transmission line consisting of approximately ten pole structures. The transmission line would connect the new Hillcrest Substation to Hydro One's existing 115 kV transmission line.

This type of project is subject to the Class Environmental Assessment for Minor Transmission Facilities (Hydro One, 2016), in accordance with the Ontario Environmental Assessment Act. The Class EA is a streamlined planning process that has proven effective for minor transmission projects that have a predictable range of effects and have feasible environmental mitigation and/or protection measures in place. The Class EA process contains screening provisions that may apply to this Project.

Contingent on the outcome of the Class EA, construction of the Project is anticipated to begin as early as October 2018, with commissioning and energization occurring as early as Summer 2020.

We welcome your comments and feedback regarding the proposed Project. Your input for this Project is valued and would be appreciated by September 28, 2018.

Community Heart & Soul

A little bit about somebody by Dolly Gordon-Andrews

Meet Carmen Portelance

This spunky 70 something lady has been a vibrant part of our community for 27 years. Residing in Dowling with her husband of 24 years and 2 dogs Carmen Portelance is a nature loving homebody. Although you would never guess her to be a homebody with her full time job as a real estate agent for 26 years (23 of which she has been with Remax Crown Realty) and the hours she spends for her community.

She boasts of her 17 grand children and 7 great grandchildren scattered throughout Canada. Carmen and Marcel have 7 children collectively to create a large wide spread family.

When she first moved to Dowling she joined St. Etienne Church and the choir. Joining the choir was a good way to make new friends and get to know her community. She then joined the Daughters of Isabella ( a catholic group of women who help within the communities). 25 years later she is still an active member of both groups.

We all know Carmen's face from her dedication to our Onaping Falls Lions Club where she sits as the Zone Chair for 47th North Lions. 47 North Lions include clubs from Onaping Falls, Azilda, Valley East and Capreol. She is one of the constant Lions member helping to bring us our Monday night Bingos and of course, the Cavalcade of Colours (September 28, 29 and 30).

Chatting with Carmen was a pleasure. Her heart is for her family and her community. She wants to see Onaping Falls thrive by supporting her local stores and community facilities.

Also while chatting with Carmen I learned that she has another amazing volunteer side to her. A few years back (maybe 40 some) while bringing her son to Scouts and waiting about for his 1 hour program to end she decided to ask if they needed any volunteers to help out! They did and 40 years later she boasts 'I am what I am because of Scouting'. In the early 80's she became District Commissioner for the 'Association des Scout du Canada' and then became the first female Provincial Commissioner. Carmen continues her work with the Scouts teaching Leadership Courses. Scouting now includes boys and girls.

Truly fitting to our 'Community Heart & Soul' section! Be sure to come out to Bingo at the Lions Club (Starting September 3rd) or Support the community by attending our Cavalcade of Colours and say 'HELLO' to Carmen when you pass her by!

Carmen is pictured with our very own Ward 3 Councillor Gerry Montpellier and Ward 12 Councillor Joscelyn Landry-Altman at a Zone 47 North Fundraiser called 'Raise the Barn' in support of Whinnying for Life in Hanmer. Whinnying for Life offers programs for people with disabilities and other life challenges interact with horses for therapy. In July 2017 they were devastated by a fire. Fundraising efforts this past year have ensured this very important program carries on.
